Office Policies and Consent for Treatment

It is important that our relationship begin with clear agreement of our mutual rights and responsibilities. My credentials and office policies are listed below. Please read them carefully and ask me to clarify anything you don't understand.

Treatment Philosophy

My goal as a psychotherapist is to help you gain greater satisfaction with your life and to help relieve symptoms of anxiety, depression and compulsive behaviors. I believe positive outcomes in therapy occur through experiencing a trusting, emotionally safe relationship in which you can grow in your awareness of yourself and your behaviors. My role is to provide this relationship and assist you in challenging old beliefs, learning new skills and letting go of old pain. I will ask you questions, offer observations and look for patterns of behavior that bring about insight, understanding and compassion for yourself and others. My work has been shaped by psychodynamic, developmental, systems, behavioral and somatic theories.

Credentials

I earned my Masters degree in Psychology from Antioch University in 1990, and have continued to study a variety of advanced psychotherapy techniques since then. I have certifications in Interpersonal Neurobiology from Mindsight Institute, Mind Body Medicine from Harvard Medical School (now Benson Henry Institute,) and Inner Relationship Focusing from Focusing Resources. I am a member of the Washington Mental Health Counselors Association and Women's Therapy Referral Service. I am a Licensed Mental Health Counselor by the Washington State Department of Health #LH30002613.

Appointments, Fees and Cancellations

My fee is $140 for a 55 minute session. Payment is due in full each session, by check, cash or credit card. If I have a contract with your insurance company, I will bill them for our sessions, and then bill you monthly for the "patient responsibility" portion of your fee. If I'm not contracted with your insurance company, I will provide monthly receipts for your use in seeking reimbursement. Whether or not I am a contracted provider with your insurance company, you are responsible for payment of services. Collateral services such as letters, reports and consultations will be prorated and billed at $150 per hour. Please provide at least 24 hours notice for all cancellations. You will be responsible for the full fee for cancellations with less than 24 hours notice.

Confidentiality

Everything that occurs in our sessions is confidential, including the fact that you are seeing me, unless I have your written consent to share this information. However, I am legally required to release information without your consent in cases of suspected child abuse or neglect, potential harm to yourself or others, or in instances in which I am subpoenaed for your records.

If you elect to use your health insurance to pay for psychotherapy, your diagnosis, symptoms, substance abuse issues (if any) and history may become part of your permanent medical records.

If you choose to communicate with me by email or text, I cannot guarantee that this information will not be accessed by third parties. The Federal HIPAA confidentiality law considers email between clients and psychotherapists a breach of confidentiality. If you email or text me about appointment times, I will respond in kind, and then immediately delete your communication from my devices.

Your Legal Rights

You have the right and responsibility to choose a practitioner and treatment modality that best suits your needs. You have the right to refuse and/or end treatment at any time. You have the right to review and/ or request a copy of your records. You also have the right to ask me to correct your records if you believe any information is in error. If you raise problems and you feel that I am unresponsive, you have the right to contact the Washington State Department of Health, Health Professionals Quality Assurance Division at www.doh.wa.gov. You may also review unprofessional conduct for LMHCs at this address.
